

In the dance of our togetherness, a potion we create,

Gratitude to the cosmos, sealing our fate.

In this magical potion, our wishes we blend,

For happiness and closeness, forever to extend.

Stones in our hands, smooth and serene,

Amplifying our love, a powerful sheen.

The candle we light, a symbolic pyre,

Burning away troubles, leaving only desire.

With heartfelt words, we enchant this space,

Asking for closeness, in our love's embrace.

So let it be, in this magical glow,

Our connection deepens, continues to grow.
